WRESTLING

Coach Don Koroch

Lincoln, who just four short years ago started wrestling, this year had an outstanding record both in team record and also individual records. They ended the dual meet schedule with a 10-2 record. As for individual champions, Dante Romeo was City and District champion and also took a third place in the state meet, wrestling at 120 pounds. Harry Flaugh was also City and District champ and won his first match in the state in the 154 pound class. John Martinez, who along with Romeo was elected co-captain, took the 133 pound City and District meets and won his first meet at state. Larry Hayes took the district at the 127 pound class the first year on the varsity team.

Next year, although, the varsity team loses some great performers including Dan Bristow 112 lbs., Dante Romeo 120 lbs., Bill Stewart 145 lbs., Harry Flaugh 154 lbs., Carl Moon 165 lbs., there are still some experienced wrestlers coming back and Coach Koroch hopes to surpass this year's record.

TRACK

Coach Loren Graaff

Good weather and a large number of boys have been a great asset to Coach Graaff this year as the cindermen have been improving very fast. Two performers who have shown great promise to date are Jim and John Watson in the Mile run.

Returning lettermen are Neil Fisher, Dick Ogdon, Bob Lozier, Jim Campbell, Sherman Gray, Larry Conrath, Bob Oglesbee, Butch Hammer, Jim and John Watson, and Gary Enslow.

BASKETBALL

Coach Frank Talarico

Lincoln Cagers finding it rough this season played fine ball despite their record. With the graduation of Don Duede and Darrell Riggle it slowed them quite a bit. The senior letter men were Nick Bellizzi, Kent Folsom, Jim Davis, Ted Erickson, Larry Douglas, Bill DeBlonk, and John Zahn.

GOLF

Coach Koroch

After a slow start this season because of snow and cold weather the links of Lincoln started their golf season in fine style. Experience and top prospects this season may prove to be one of the best teams in many years. Seniors leading the golf team will be Carl Moon, Jim Davis, Ted Erickson, Jack Hammond, and Harry Flaugh.

BASEBALL

Baseball has had a slow start this year because of cold weather. The pitchers and catchers have been practicing outside a little, but up to the time of the printing of this book most of the work had been done inside playing volleyball.

There are a number of juniors and sophomores eager to fill the vacancies left by last year's graduating players and along with six returning lettermen should have a pretty good season. The six returning lettermen are John Haydon, John Zahn, Bill DeBlonk, Kent Folsom, Nick Bellizzi, and Larry Douglas, all-city selection of last year.

Senior Highlights

Dear Readers,

The Senior Class of June, 1955 wishes to present to you some of the most unforgettable occasions of their Senior year in form of a memory book.

We hope these memories, which mean so much to us, will also have your interest.

Chapter I

February second the class elected Nick Bellizzi as editor of the June 1955 Railsplitter. Nick chose the staff, which was small, but was the backbone of the book. Each staff member has a number of persons to help him.

Sherry Townsend was chosen make-up editor. She decides where everything is placed in the book. This may be considered the most important job of the book.

The job of writing personality sketches was given to Beverly Howlett and Miriam Skelton. These sketches are placed beside the graduates' pictures in the Senior class section.

Glossie editors are Barbara Brown and Pat Stetfani. They are responsible for getting the glossies together and putting them in alphabetical order and collecting fees.

Sports editors chosen were Ted Erickson and Delmar Cornelison. They have the job of writing the sports page. They also identify persons in the sports pictures.

Writing the Class Will are Janet Bequeaith and Helen Samuelson. They arrange the statements of the graduates in alphabetical order to form a Will.

Handling the job of advertising are Larry Douglas and Larry Horton. They must collect all money connected with the advertising in the book.

Rose Edwards, Kay Hughes, and Patty White are the editors of the picture page. They arrange snapshots turned in by the seniors.

Working on organizations will be LeRoy Frederick. He must identify all people in group pictures.

Artists for the book are Sue Michel and Arlyn Ehmsen. Maline Wycoff is in charge of page inserts.

Writing the Highlights of the senior semester "Memory Book" will be Judy Gering.

The big job of circulation will be handled by Marilynn Shoemaker and Shirley Wing.

We were all anxious to begin work, for busy days were ahead.

Make-up editors are Marilyn Myers and Marilynn Shoemaker. They are in charge of the front page.

Deanna Roberts and Elaine Singleterry are feature editors; Dick Marturello and Jim Davis are sports editors; Helen Fillman is copy and proof editor; Marilyn Myers and Helen Samuelson are back page editors.

March 17 was our senior "Get-together." Our theme this year was based on the Old West. We had the usual assembly with acts all based on the western idea. We carried this idea throughout the whole day. After school we had a square dance and round dancing and at 5:30 we ate our dinner. It consisted of chili, coney, salad, and dessert. We feel we made a huge success of the day.
